There will be a multitude of things going on over the weekend. You can move in between the concerts and sessions etc. For some of the workshops we need to firm up appropriate sized groups in advance. Please number your top three preferences in each of the groups below and we will endeavour to ensure you are always doing things you want to do. We can't guarantee you'll get all your top choices.

One to Ones/Small Groups

These special sessions give participants (you!) the opportunity to work individually or in small groups, with our invited artists for a short period (20mins). Let us know if you want to attend a session by marking the options, and we will try to fit it in the timetable.

- Bryony Griffith – Freely themed for what will help you
- Jackie Oates – Freely themed for what will help you
- Emily Askew – Freely themed for what will help you
- Jack Rutter – Guitar accompaniment and technique
- Hazel Askew – Song accompaniment with melodeon
- Paul Sartin – Singing Techniques
- Nick Dow – The Old Way: Forget those fancy guitar tunings! Enjoy playing guitar accompaniment with the old-fashioned way and in regular tuning.

Note: there are other workshops taking place during the weekend that we don't need you to select now – so do check the website for information on those!
